Air Canada Component Of CUPE Bylaws

SECTION 1 – NAME and JURISDICTION

- 1.1 The name of this Component shall be the Air Canada Component of CUPE (hereinafter referred to as the "ACC").
- 1.2 The assets and property of the Component shall be governed by the laws of Ontario.
- 1.3 The ACC is a Component composed of all Locals chartered by the Canadian Union of Public Employees (hereinafter referred to as "CUPE") with members employed by Air Canada and is established pursuant to the CUPE Constitution and the Airline Service Division (hereinafter referred to as the "ASD") Bylaws.

SECTION 2 – DUTIES and OBJECTIVES

The principal duties and objectives of the ACC shall be to:

- (a) Establish at all times the highest possible wage standards, job security, and conditions of employment for its members either through collective bargaining or through the medium of legislation or regulations affecting its members, which will protect and improve their employment conditions;
- (b) Work with its Locals to support CUPE in reaching the goals set out in Article II of the CUPE Constitution;
- (c) Provide an opportunity for its members to influence and shape their future through free democratic trade unionism;
- (d) Work on its own initiative and with CUPE, other Components and other unions and bodies, as applicable, domestically and internationally, to promote the membership's objectives, including representation of the member's interests before appropriate government agencies and bodies on legislative and regulatory issues affecting the union;
- (e) Promote a safe and healthy work environment for all members;
- (f) Negotiate the collective agreement covering its members;
- (g) Settle promptly all disputes and grievances, which may arise between its members and their employer, in accordance with procedures established in its Collective Agreement;

Air Canada Component Of CUPE Bylaws

- (h) Proceed to arbitration, as applicable, to settle disputes and grievances between its members and their employer;
- (i) Administer and enforce the Collective Agreement, in conjunction with its Locals, in all other respects;
- (j) Inform regularly all ACC members on the matters affecting the union, including Component activities to fulfill union objectives;
- (k) Establish and maintain Component Committees in accordance with these Bylaws;
- (l) Receive and administer the union dues received from the employer in accordance with these Bylaws;
- (m) Establish and approve a Component budget;
- (n) Pay, or cause to be paid, all properly substantiated expenses associated with the Component's activities;
- (o) Remit the specified budget shares for Locals in accordance with these Bylaws; and
- (p) Train and educate its union officers and members in accordance with the Component budget.

SECTION 3 - INTERPRETATION and DEFINITIONS

- 3.1 The English and the French texts of these Bylaws have equal force.
- 3.2 Masculine pronouns shall be understood to include the feminine gender.
- 3.3 The Canadian Union of Public Employees shall be referred to as "CUPE".
- 3.4 The Air Canada Component of CUPE shall be referred to as the "ACC" and/or the "Component".

SECTION 4 – COMPONENT EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- 4.1 The ACC shall have a Component Executive Committee (hereinafter referred to as the "ACCEX").

Air Canada Component Of CUPE Bylaws

- 4.2 The ACCEX shall be composed of the Component President, the Component Vice-President, the Component Secretary-Treasurer, and the Local Presidents.
- 4.3 Local Presidents may assign a Local Vice-President as their designate to meetings of the ACCEX.
- 4.4 The ACCEX shall form the Component Negotiation Committee. The ACCEX may form a smaller Negotiating Committee if it so desires. All Collective Agreements shall be ratified by a Membership Referendum Vote in accordance with Appendix "B" of these Bylaws.
- 4.5 The ACCEX shall ensure that any major changes to the Collective Agreement recommended by the Component Negotiation Committee during the term of the Collective Agreement shall be ratified by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of all of the members of the ACCEX representing at least half (1/2) of the total membership. This Collective Agreement change will not take effect unless it is also subsequently ratified by a Membership Referendum Vote in accordance with Appendix "B" of these Bylaws.
- 4.6 The ACCEX shall meet as often as required but at least once quarterly. The Component President shall call the first ACCEX meeting within thirty-five (35) days of taking office. The Component President shall convene the ACCEX when requested by a majority of the ACCEX members. A two-thirds (2/3) majority of all of the members of the ACCEX representing at least half (1/2) of the total membership constitutes a quorum.
- 4.7 Motions of the ACCEX shall only be carried when supported by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of all of the members of ACCEX representing at least half (1/2) of the total membership.
- 4.8 Should any ACCEX member fail to answer the roll call for four consecutive regular ACCEX meetings without having submitted good reasons for those absences or sent a designate, his/her office shall be declared vacant and shall be filled in accordance with these Bylaws.
- 4.9 Title to any real estate of the Component shall be held in trust by all three of the Component President, Component Vice-President and Component Secretary-Treasurer. The right to sell, purchase, convey, or encumber any real estate held by the Component shall be ratified by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of all of the members of the ACCEX representing at least half (1/2) of the total membership and shall also be ratified by a Membership Referendum Vote in accordance with Appendix "B" of these Bylaws.

Air Canada Component Of CUPE Bylaws

- (g) Ensure that, except for ordinary expenses and budgeted expenses as approved at ACCEX meetings, no sum over $500.00 shall be spent for the purpose of a grant or contribution to a member or any cause outside CUPE, except by a notice of motion given in writing and dealt with at the following ACCEX meeting;
- (h) Ensure quarterly financial statements are prepared and submitted to the ACCEX;
- (i) Report on the administration of his/her office to meetings of the ACCEX;
- (j) Be in charge of books, documents, files and effects of the Component, which shall, at all times, be subject to inspection by the Component President;
- (k) Have the books audited by a qualified auditor annually and provide such audits to the Component Trustees, CUPE and the ACCEX;
- (l) Have the books audited by the Component Trustees and provide such Trustees' Reports to CUPE;
- (m) Make a full financial written report regularly to the ACC membership on the financial matters affecting the union;
- (n) Be bonded through the master bond held by CUPE and any Secretary-Treasurer who cannot qualify for the bond shall be disqualified from office;
- (o) On termination of office, surrender all books, seals and other properties of the Component to her/his successor;
- (p) Keep an accurate, full and impartial record of each meeting of the ACCEX and any other meetings as may be deemed necessary and forward such records to members of the ACCEX within 30 days after the meeting;
- (q) Record all duly approved alterations to the Component Bylaws and forward the amended Bylaws to the ACCEX within 30 days of the alteration;
- (r) Audit the record of attendance to regular ACCEX meetings and submit same to the ACCEX annually; and
- (s) In combination with any Company paid flight release, receive a supplementary payment from the Union, in order to receive a total monthly pay equal to the highest earner of the bargaining unit in that month.

Air Canada Component Of CUPE Bylaws

6.4 The Component Trustees shall:

- (a) Act as an auditing committee on behalf of the members and audit the books and accounts of the Secretary-Treasurer and the Component Committees at least once every calendar year;
- (b) Make a written report of their findings to the ACCEX within 30 days of the completion of each audit;
- (c) Submit in writing to the Component President and Component Secretary-Treasurer any recommendations and/or concerns they feel should be reviewed in order to ensure that the Component Union's funds, records, and accounts are being maintained by the Component Secretary-Treasurer in an organized, correct and proper manner;
- (d) Be responsible to ensure that monies are not paid out without proper constitutional authorization;
- (e) Ensure that proper financial reports are made to the membership;
- (f) Inspect at least once a year any stocks, bonds, securities, office furniture and equipment, and titles or deeds to property that may at any time be owned by the Component, and report their findings to the CUPE and the ACCEX; and
- (g) Send a copy of the completed audit report (on the prescribed form provided by the CUPE National Secretary-Treasurer), as well as a copy of their report to the ACCEX, a copy of their recommendations and/or concerns sent to the Component President and the Component Secretary-Treasurer and the Component Secretary-Treasurer's response, to the CUPE National Secretary-Treasurer, with a copy to the assigned CUPE National Representative and to the membership.

SECTION 7 - EXPENSES

- 7.1 All Component paid flight releases and expenses must be authorized in advance by one of the Component President, Component Vice-President or Component Secretary-Treasurer. The Component President, Component Vice-President and/or Component Secretary-Treasurer can authorize expenditures in accordance with the Component budget as approved by the ACCEX. Any expenses not included in the Component budget must be authorized by the ACCEX before being incurred.

Air Canada Component Of CUPE Bylaws

SECTION 11 - ELECTIONS

- 11.1 Component Elections shall be held in accordance with Appendix "B" attached to and forming an integral part of these Bylaws.
- 11.2 Local Elections shall be held in accordance with Appendix "C" attached to and forming an integral part of these Bylaws.
- 11.3 Appeals of Component and Local elections shall be handled in accordance with Appendix "D" attached to and forming an integral part of these Bylaws.

SECTION 12 - DELEGATES to the ASD CONFERENCE & the CUPE CONVENTION

- 12.1 An ASD Conference shall be held every two (2) years immediately preceding the CUPE National Convention.
- 12.2 Representation from each Local for delegates to the ASD Conference and the CUPE Convention shall be in accordance with the CUPE Constitution.
- 12.3 Representation at the ASD Conference and CUPE Convention shall be based on the paid up membership, including Rand Formula payees, averaged over the last twelve (12) months before the CUPE Convention call is sent out.
- 12.4 All members of the ACCEX shall automatically be deemed part of their respective delegate entitlement from their Local and shall not require being elected as a delegate. Any additional Local delegates, if applicable, shall be elected in accordance with Appendix "C" of these Bylaws.
- 12.5 Expenses to attend the ASD Conference and CUPE Convention for the automatic delegates who are members of the ACCEX shall be pre-approved by the ACCEX and paid from the Component budget. Each Local shall pay the expenses from their Local budget for all other Local delegates.

SECTION 13 - PROCEDURE to AMEND COMPONENT BYLAWS

- 13.1 These Component Bylaws are always subordinate to the CUPE Constitution as it now exists or may be amended from time to time, and in the event of any conflict between these Component Bylaws and the CUPE Constitution, the CUPE Constitution shall govern. Constitutional interpretation, including determination of conflict, is the prerogative of the National President of CUPE.

Air Canada Component Of CUPE Bylaws

- 13.2 In the event of any conflict between these Component Bylaws and the ASD Bylaws and/or Local Bylaws, these Component Bylaws shall govern. Component Bylaw interpretation, including determination of conflict, is the prerogative of the Component President, subject to appeal to the National President of CUPE.
- 13.3 These Component Bylaws shall only be amended, added to, or suspended upon a Membership Referendum Vote in accordance with Appendix "B" of these Bylaws.
- 13.4 No change in these Bylaws shall be valid and take effect until approved by the National President of CUPE. The validity date of the change shall be the date of approval by the National President of CUPE.

SECTION 14 - SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT PERSONNEL

As Special Assignment is defined as quasi-management in the Collective Agreement, any member who is on a Special Assignment shall continue to pay dues and be eligible for voting but must resign from any CUPE position and shall not be eligible for nomination or appointment to any office or Committee in the Union. He/she shall not be eligible to attend meetings of the Union except with the approval of a majority of the members at such meetings.

SECTION 15 - TRIALS

All charges against a member and/or a union officer must be made in writing and dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the CUPE Constitution.

SECTION 16 - RULES OF ORDER

- 16.1 All meetings of the ACC and of its Locals shall be conducted in accordance with the basic principles of Canadian parliamentary procedure. Some of the more important rules to ensure free and fair debate are appended to these Bylaws as Appendix "A". These rules shall be considered as an integral part of the Bylaws and may be amended only by the same procedure used to amend the Bylaws.
- 16.2 In situations not covered by Appendix "A", the CUPE Constitution may provide guidance, but, if the situation is not dealt with there, Bourinot's Rules of Order shall be consulted and applied.

APPENDIX "A"
TO THE BYLAWS OF THE AIR CANADA COMPONENT OF CUPE

Rules of Order for Meetings

- A.1 The President or, in her/his absence, the Vice-President, shall take the Chair at all meetings. In the absence of both the President and Vice-President, the Secretary-Treasurer shall act as President, and in her/his absence a President pro-tem shall be chosen by the membership at the meeting.
- A.2 No member, except the Chair of a committee making a report or the mover of a resolution, shall speak more than five minutes, or more than once on the same question without the consent of the meeting or until all who wish to speak have had an opportunity. Chairs and movers of a resolution shall be limited to fifteen minutes, except with the consent of the meeting.
- A.3 The President shall state every question coming before the meeting, and before allowing debate thereon, and again immediately before putting it to a vote, shall ask: "Is the membership ready for the question?" Should no member rise to speak, the question shall then be put.
- A.4 A motion to be entertained by the presiding officer must be moved and seconded; both mover and seconder must rise and be recognized by the Chair.
- A.5 A motion to amend, or to amend an amendment, shall be in order, but no motion to amend an amendment to an amendment shall be permitted. No amendment, or amendment to an amendment, which is a direct negative of the resolution shall be in order.
- A.6 On motion, the regular order of business may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of those present, to deal with any urgent business.
- A.7 All resolutions and motions other than those named in Rule 17, or those to accept or adopt the report of a committee, shall, if requested by the presiding officer, be presented in writing before being put to the meeting.
- A.8 At the request of any member, and upon a majority vote of those present, a question may be divided when the sense will admit of it.
- A.9 Any member having made a motion can withdraw it with the consent of the seconder, except that any motion, once debated, cannot be withdrawn except by a majority vote of those present.

Air Canada Component Of CUPE Bylaws

- A.10 When a member wishes to speak on a question or to make a motion, he shall rise in his place and respectfully address the presiding officer, but, except to state that he rises to a point of order or on a question of privilege, he shall not proceed further until recognized by the Chair.
- A.11 When two or more members rise to speak at the same time, the Chair shall decide which one is entitled to the floor.
- A.12 Every member, while speaking, shall adhere to the question under debate and avoid all personal, indecorous, or offensive language, as well as any poor reflection on the Component or member thereof.
- A.13 If a member, while speaking, is called to order, he shall cease speaking until the point is determined; if it is decided he is in order, he may again proceed.
- A.14 No religious discussion shall be permitted.
- A.15 The President shall take no part in debate while presiding, but may yield the Chair to the Vice-President in order to speak on any question before the meeting, or to introduce a new question.
- A.16 The Chair shall vote only in order to break a tie and in elections.
- A.17 When a motion is before the meeting, no other motion shall be in order except (1) to adjourn (2) to put the previous question (3) to lay on the table (4) to postpone for a definite time (5) to refer (6) to divide or amend, which motions shall have precedence in the order named. The first three of these shall be decided without debate.
- A.18 A motion for the previous question, when regularly moved and seconded, shall be put in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" If it is adopted, the Chair shall proceed to take the vote on the resolution and amendments thereto (if any) according to their priority. If an amendment or an amendment to an amendment is adopted, the original resolution, as amended, shall be put to the meeting.
- A.19 A motion to adjourn is in order except (1) when a member has the floor, and (2) when members are voting.
- A.20 A motion to adjourn, having been put and lost, shall not be in order again, if there is further business before the meeting, until fifteen minutes have elapsed.
- A.21 After the presiding officer declares the vote on a question, and before the meeting proceeds to another order of business, any member may ask for a division of members present. A standing vote shall then be taken and the Secretary-Treasurer shall count same.

- A.22 If any member wishes to challenge (appeal) a decision of the Chair, he must do so at the time the decision is made. If the challenge is seconded, the member shall be asked to state briefly the basis for his challenge. The Chair may then state briefly the basis for his decision, following which the Chair shall immediately and without debate put the question: "Shall the decision of the Chair be sustained?" A majority vote shall decide except that in the event of a tie the Chair is sustained.
- A.23 After a question has been decided, any two members who have voted in the majority may, at the same or next meeting, move reconsideration thereof.
- A.24 No member shall enter or leave a meeting during the taking of a vote without the permission of the Vice-President.
- A.25 The Union's business, and proceedings of meetings, are not to be divulged to any persons outside the Canadian Union of Public Employees.

TO THE BYLAWS OF THE AIR CANADA COMPONENT OF CUPE

Component Voting Procedures

B.1 Appointment of the Component Tabulating Committee

The Component Tabulating Committee shall consist of seven members of the ACC. Each Local President shall appoint one member from his/her Local and the Component President shall appoint one member from the ACC membership at large. Component Tabulating Committee members shall be members who are neither officers nor candidates for office. The term of the Component Tabulating Committee members shall be no more than two (2) years commencing from the date of first ACCEX meeting following the regularly scheduled Component Officer Elections. The seven members of the Component Tabulating Committee shall elect the Chairperson of the Component Tabulating Committee from amongst themselves. Quorum for any meeting or teleconference shall be 4 members of the Component Tabulating Committee.

B.2 Responsibilities and Duties of the Component Tabulating Committee

B.2.1 The Component Tabulating Committee is responsible for the entire voting procedure.

B.2.2 The Component Tabulating Committee Chairperson in consultation with the Component Secretary-Treasurer shall establish a budget for the Component Tabulating Committee within 90 days of the beginning the Component's new fiscal year. Such Component Tabulating Committee budget shall be subject to the approval of the ACCEX before any Component Tabulating Committee expenses are considered for payment by the ACC. Payment of expenses shall be in accordance with Section 8 of these Bylaws.

B.2.3 All votes shall be conducted electronically via telephone and internet.

B.2.4 The Component Tabulating Committee shall determine which electronic voting company will administer the vote. The electronic voting company shall be referred to as the "administrators".

B.2.5 The Component Tabulating Committee shall determine which mailing house company will provide information and personal identification numbers to the members.

B.2.6 The Component Tabulating Committee shall assign an auditor to review the vote.

Air Canada Component Of CUPE Bylaws

- B.2.7 The Component Tabulating Committee shall provide a list of eligible voters (hereinafter referred to as the "Membership List") to the administrators, the mailing house company and the auditors.
- B.2.8 The Component Tabulating Committee shall ensure that the administrators and the mailing house companies chosen provide service in both official languages.
- B.2.9 The administrators of the vote shall be given clear instruction not to provide any information regarding the actual vote of any individual voter to any person.
- B.2.10 The mailing house company will send a temporary personal identification number (the "PIN") to each member at the address shown on the Membership List. Only the mailing house company, the administrator and the individual member will know the PIN for that member.

Appeal Procedures for all Component and Local Votes

D.1 Appeal Procedures

- D.1.1 A member may only appeal the results of Component Elections or Local Elections for which she/he was a candidate.
- D.1.2 A member may only appeal the results of a Local Delegate Election for which she/he was a candidate.
- D.1.3 Any member of the ACC may appeal the results of a Component Membership Referendum Vote.
- D.1.4 In all cases, the appellant must file her/his appeal by written notice to the Chairperson of the Component Tabulating Committee by registered mail within (30) days of the vote results being released. For electoral votes, the appellant must also provide a copy of the appeal notice to all other candidates for the position being appealed.
- D.1.5 The written notice shall contain:
- (a) A full statement of the grounds for the appeal;
 - (b) Whether the member wishes to have an oral hearing or whether the matter can be decided on the basis of written submissions only; and
 - (c) The remedy sought in accordance with Section D.1.11.
- D.1.6 The Chairperson of the Component Tabulating Committee shall notify the Tabulating Committee members of the notice of the appeal within fifteen (15) calendar days.
- D.1.7 The Component Tabulating Committee shall proceed expeditiously to determine the merits of the appeal. The Component Tabulating Committee shall establish its own practice and procedure including if an oral hearing shall be granted to the appellant, but shall give full opportunity to the appellant and, when applicable, to the other candidates, to present their evidence and to make submissions on the issues before it.
- D.1.8 If the appellant is granted a hearing, the Component Tabulating Committee shall notify the appellant and, when applicable, the other candidates, by registered mail, at least one (1) month before the date set for the hearing, of the time and place where the appeal will be heard.

Air Canada Component Of CUPE Bylaws

D.1.9 The Component Tabulating Committee shall determine appeals utilizing the following fundamental criteria:

- a) Democracy – one eligible voter can only vote once;
- b) Accuracy – the final vote count reflects the intent of the voters;
- c) Security – measures are in place to protect the integrity of the process;
- d) Secrecy – no vote can be traced to the voter;
- e) Verifiability / Auditability – the vote results can be verified after the initial count;
- f) Privacy / Confidentiality – information collected on voters is used for voting purposes only and within the scope for which it was collected;
- g) Transparency – the process is open to outside scrutiny;
- h) Simplicity – the voting process does not make voting unduly complicated;
- i) Recoverability – the voting process provides for duplication of systems to prevent data loss;
- j) Speed of count – vote results can be reported quickly; and
- k) Cost effectiveness – the voting process is effective and economically.

D.1.10 The decision on any appeal shall be in writing and be delivered by the Component Tabulating Committee to the appellant, to the ACCEX, and when applicable, to the other candidates, within thirty (30) days after the hearing of the appeal or the completion of written submissions.

D.1.11 The Component Tabulating Committee decision on the appeal can only confirm the result of the original vote or declare dates for a new vote. The Component Tabulating Committee cannot provide its alternative outcome to the election or Membership Referendum Vote. Should the Component Tabulating Committee declare dates for a new electoral vote, the office for which the results are being appealed shall be declared vacant until the results of the new electoral vote are released. Should the Component Tabulating committee declare dates for a new Membership Referendum Vote, the original results shall be set aside until the results of the new Membership Referendum Vote are released.

Air Canada Component Of CUPE Bylaws

- D.1.12 All costs and expenses of the appellant and, when applicable, of the other affected candidates, that are incurred for the appeal including appearances before the Component Tabulating Committee, shall be borne by the appellant or affected candidates, as applicable.
- D.1.13 The appellant and, when applicable, the other affected candidates, may appeal the Component Tabulating Committee's decision to CUPE by filing a written notice, by registered mail, to the National President of CUPE within twenty (20) days of the decision of the Component Tabulating Committee being released, with copies to the Chairperson of the Component Tabulating Committee and the Component President. This written notice of appeal shall contain a full statement of the grounds for the appeal of the decision of the Component Tabulating Committee and a statement of the remedy sought.
- D.1.14 The Chairperson of the Component Tabulating Committee and when applicable, other affected candidates, shall within twenty (20) days of the date of the written notice of appeal to CUPE, file with the National President of CUPE a full statement of their response, with copies to all involved parties.
- D.1.15 The National President of CUPE shall have the authority to decide the appeal based on written submissions received, or to conduct or cause to be conducted any further investigation as the National President of CUPE, in her/his sole discretion, deems appropriate. The decision of the National President of CUPE shall be final and binding on all parties to the appeal.

Each Local Committee member shall be reimbursed for her/his expenses in accordance with Section E.9 of these Bylaws from the respective Local Committee budget.
- E.12.7 Local Committee Chairpersons and members shall report to their Local President when carrying out assigned Local Committee responsibilities.

SECTION E.13 - RULES OF ORDER

All meetings of the Local shall be conducted in accordance with the basic principles of Canadian parliamentary procedure. Some of the more important rules to ensure free and fair debate are appended to the Component Bylaws as Appendix "A". These rules shall be considered as an integral part of the bylaws and may be amended only by the same procedure used to amend the bylaws.

In situations not covered by Appendix "A" of the Component Bylaws, the CUPE Constitution may provide guidance, but, if the situation is not dealt with there, Bourinot's Rules of Order shall be consulted and applied.

SECTION E.14 – AMENDMENT TO THE LOCAL BYLAWS

- E.14.1 These Bylaws are always subordinate to the CUPE Constitution as it now exists or may be amended from time to time, and in the event of any conflict between these Bylaws and the CUPE Constitution the latter shall govern. Constitutional interpretation, including determination of conflict, is the prerogative of the National President of CUPE.
- E.14.2 These Local Bylaws shall only be amended, added to, or suspended upon a majority vote of the Local membership at a duly called Local membership meeting. Any proposed change to the Local Bylaws shall be contained in the notice for the membership meeting.
- E.14.3 No change in these Local Bylaws shall be valid and take effect until approved by the National President of CUPE. The validity shall date from the letter of approval of the National President of CUPE.
