Where One Thread Breaks, a Rope Holds Firm

In support of our Bargaining team and to show our enthusiasm for our Mobilization Committee, the Local 4092 Executive recently decided to "purple up" the Local office by painting a wall violet. As part of our ongoing mobilization project we are inviting all YYZ members to come to the Local and sign the wall to show their solidarity for CUPE and our Bargaining team. We want the Local office to be a source of pride and inspiration for all.

Solidarity is not just a word, it is a feeling which can be expressed in a million tiny actions leading up to an overwhelming wave.

Today, the Ontario Secondary School Teacher Federation members in Durham are starting their first day of labour action, which has already restarted talks with provincial negotiators at their central bargaining table. Last week, hundreds of workers shared their stories at the airport rally for a minimum $15 airport wage. And thousands of people have stopped buying beverages in aluminum cans to show their support for striking workers at USW Local 9176.

Small actions can have big results.

Every tidal wave begins with a drop of water. So wear your purple lanyard, CUPE pin and visit the Local today.

Solidarity is a choice, so choose Solidarity.
