

Because Black history is Canadian History

Every February, people across Canada participate in Black History Month events and festivities that honour the legacy of Black people in Canada and their communities.

The 2023 theme for Black History Month is: "Ours to tell". This theme represents both an opportunity to engage in open dialogue and a commitment to learning more about the stories Black communities in Canada have to tell about their histories, successes, sacrifices and triumphs.

We invite you to learn more about these communities, and how they continue to help shape Canadian history.

Tracing stories from the earliest Black settlers to recently arrived Canadians, Strong and Free, a six part podcast from Historica Canada, captures just a few of the crucial stories of Black Canadians thriving and contributing to building this country.
