You can prep for the Quiz by checking out the Ontario Black History Society first. To build a better future in the Black Community in Ontario and Canada, it is critical to first acknowledge and understand all that has happened until this point. If not for the countless trailblazers who helped shape our country, things like Black history Month and Ontario Black History Society may never have existed. Therefore, it is imperative that we not only remember these men and women, but celebrate them as well! Click the above link for more info on the important work they do!
