Many members are inquiring what to do with the $2000 CERB payment they have received now that the CEWS bid is completed.

It is important to note that CUPE reps do not receive direct updates or training from the Government in regards to the benefits it provides, whether it be EI, CERB or any other benefit.

For this reason we advise crew members to contact the CRA or Service Canada directly to ensure that your claim/application is cancelled and arrange for repayment of any over paid benefits.

If you opted for home delivery of a cheque, you can simply return the uncashed cheque to the address below.

If you don't have the cheque or were paid by direct deposit you can mail a personal cheque as your repayment to the CRA. Be sure to:

1. make payment out to "Receiver General for Canada"
2. indicate it is for "Repayment of CERB"
3. include your Social Insurance Number (SIN) or your Temporary Tax Number (TTN)

Many banking institutions will allow you to add the CRA as a "payee" online, the same way you would add a credit card or any other bill. Speak to your bank to inquire if this is an option for you.

Remember it is not enough to simply return the payment, you must also cancel your application to avoid further payments.
